Original Radio Broadcasts : Lum Abner Volume 5 (Old Time Radio) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lum Abner Volume 5 (Old Time Radio):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great humor for the whole familyBy J DavisThese Lum and Abner CDs are wonderful old shows with clean humor. The worst name they call somebody is "snake in the weeds". I listen to them at bedtime every night and they help me fall asleep. The humor is slow, the plot is slow, its perfect for falling asleep.9 CDs, 4 shows on each, perfect for 1 CD per night. Sound quality is very good for something this old.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Still great after all these yearsBy Lori VirginiaLaughed out loud because their humor is great

Lum and Abner meet Buster V. Davenport of Toledo, Ohio but, he sure looks a lot like our old friend Grandpappy Spears of Pine Ridge! And, that's just one of the problems facing the proprietors of the Jot 'Em Down Store in this collection. There's a war on! The town's truck line is in trouble, little Pearl is leaving town to become a nurse, and the boys' secret recipe for making synthetic rubber is lost. Can the Golden Era Discussion Club study up a way to get things back to normal? Here are 36 serialized episodes from the winter of 1943!
