Marty Bergen : Marty Sez, Volume 3 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Marty Sez, Volume 3:

Points Schmoints series, starting with his first award winning Points Schmoints hardcover book first published in 1995, to be followed by MORE Points Schmoints (which is actually more useful than his first book IMHO), then Marty Sez and then Marty Sez #2 and finally Marty Sez #3. Bergen's Points Schmoints Series definitely work well in match point duplicate games as well as tournaments. They probably should work even better in IMP games. After my reading all his 5 books, and my in depth studying all the examples and exercises Marty have included (and re reading whenever I have encountered some bad boards), my score of winning has more than doubled. Marty Sez #3 is best of the series IMHO. It gives specific examples of borderline hands whether to bid (and what to bid!) or pass depending on whether you are sitting with favorable vulnerability and gives us many difficult to bid hands in most of the bidding situations, including some competitive situations. It also works wonderfully with partners who INSISTS "No bargain". They may not appreciate Bergen's way of bidding. But they LOVE the results of bidding and playing the Bergen way. Just do not tell them that you are actually playing the Bergen's way! I believe that many players who insists "no Bergen" because most of non expert players cannot play the difficult to make contracts, as Marty would have done. I have also bought Bergen's 2 books on Declarer Play the Bergen's way plus his Defense book. For me, playing Bridge the Bergen way works much better than any other Bridge books, which I have studied. Lessons may not be as helpful, because they seldom gives examples where the decision might be what is the lesser of the evil in your bid! The game results have convinced me to reach this conclusion. I have read and studied the 2/1 (2 over 1) book by Grant and Rodwell (also bought from .com). IMHO, the book does not prepare the newbies in difficult 1 Notrump Forcing in responder's rebid. Bergen's booklet titled Understanding One Notrump included many literally AWFUL and awkward when you have to rebid your hand after 1NT forcing and your partner has rebid. I have recommended the Bergen series of books to a newbie with less than 50 master points. Her Bridge score has ALSO been doubled ever since and she told me that the books helped her and her husband MORE than the lessons and directed play from an Emerald Life Master professional who insists on using 2 over 1 Game forcing. To me, whatever works is best pragmatic approach to successful Bridge play. I also play occasionally with her as my partner. We will soon be ready to play open games and gold rush tournaments. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A real Bridge Treasure By Alice Tilney Marty is the best! He makes bridge, life for beginners, intermediate and advanced players. A book not to be missed by any bridge players!

Marty Sez - Volume 3 is the third book in the very popular series. Highlights of this book include an extensive look at how to proceed after an opponent's takeout double.

"Bigger and even better than the first two informative Marty Sez books." -- Gordon Gray An extremely practical and entertaining book. Be careful though, you may have trouble putting this down. -- Fred Gitelman There is a strong air of practicality in "Marty Sez volume 3", -- Tim Bourke About the Author Marty Bergen is the best-selling author of POINTS SCHMOINTS and 17 other bridge books and CDs.
