Hadley To be honest, I was spoiled by listening to the perfectly wonderfully BBC radio programs "Cabin Pressure" and "John Finnemore's Souvenir Programme" which were both so funny and clever I was left breathless! After those great experiences, I was hoping for something equally fun and quirky from this set, but it's been a big disappointment. The human characters are pretty much unlikeable, shallow, and petty. It's the aliens who seem to get the best lines and are more interesting, based on their observations of life on Earth. Sorry, can't recommend this. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Really amusing! By Arlene This is a rather hilarious BBC Broadcast. It's about a quiet British Village that had been not only taken over by aliens, but the people have been cut off from the rest of the world completely. The varying responses of this and actions by the community are just too funny! Give it a shot-you'll enjoy it! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This is so funny I bought another one as a gift By F T This is so funny I bought another one as a gift. Somewhat ridiculous story but once you put that aside, the writing and acting are so good! The "Computer" and the "Printer" are my favorite characters... I still laugh out loud after listening so many times while driving...

Two series of the BBC Radio 4 sitcom about an alien invasion of a small village, starring Hattie Morahan and Julian

Rhind-Tutt with Peter Davison and Jan Francis. When the small Buckinghamshire village of Cresdon Green is invaded by an alien race called the Geonin, the local residents come up against Uljabaan, the smooth-talking leader of the aliens.
