From Hal Leonard : White Christmas: Movie Vocal Selections before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised White Christmas: Movie Vocal Selections:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. The book is good quality, with many pages of photos and background ...By Chad DeetsThis is the only place I have found to buy the sheet music for the film version of White Christmas. The book is good quality, with many pages of photos and background for the film, and the music is easy to read. However, although the book includes almost all the major songs (1 exception... keep reading), the arrangements in this book are Berlin's originals, and usually not the arrangements heard in the film. In addition, the song "What Can

"You Do With A General", heard in its entirety in the film, is missing from the book, although "Heat Wave", heard for about 10 seconds in the film, is included. Overall, the book is good and does its job, but I wish the arrangements had been more true to the film.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love it!By CustomerLove the movie; love the music; love the book!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great Memories!By Terry L. MendenallAs I play and sing the songs in this songbook, they bring back great memories of the first time I saw the movie as a young man. I see the faces of the stars and the actors portraying the soldiers, and remember the story of the sacrifice. If you loved the movie, you'll love having the songbook!

(Piano/Vocal/Guitar Songbook). 12 vocal selections from this 1954 film classic starring Bing Crosby and featuring the beloved music of Irving Berlin. Songs include: The Best Things Happen While You're Dancing * Blue Skies * Count Your Blessings Instead of Sheep * Gee, I Wish I Was Back in the Army * Heat Wave * Love, You Didn't Do Right by Me * Mandy * The Old Man * Sisters * Snow * White Christmas. Also includes a plot synopsis and extensive history of the movie, a listing of credits, and pages of great publicity stills!

About the AuthorIrving Berlin (1888-1989) was the most prolific songwriter of the twentieth century. He composed over twelve hundred songs, including "White Christmas," "Blue Skies," and "Alexander's Ragtime Band." "God Bless America" was first introduced in 1938 and continues to inspire this nation at times of triumph and tragedy. The Berlin estate donates all royalties from the song to the God Bless America Fund to benefit America's youth.
