6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Best so far By audreyI prefer Will Shortz's book of Suduko to many others because there is always only 1 answer. This is my favorite so far because of the balance of Moderate (25) to Demanding (75) and Challenging (100). 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. These puzzles are far too easy. If anyone out there wants more challenge By PRW These puzzles are far too easy. If anyone out there wants more challenge, order Frank Longo puzzles. They are well constructed to get to real problem solving quickly and there are many levels of difficulty in the different books. Truly easy to very challenging - some beyond me at this point. I also highly recommend the Mensa Guide to serious solvers. I'm up to page 90 and have encountered only two I've given up on. The rest I have been able to do, but sometimes just barely. That's exactly what I want to keep from going brain dead. A challenge, but a little bit of a reward, too.
