This book relates to the younger set ... mainly teenagers or those in High School. However, I did enjoy this well written book. It's truly a lesson for those who spend their lives on-line, believing everything they read. Actually, it's all about gossip.

I recently stumbled across this author and I must say I love everything so far that I've read a definite must read and i'd definitely read anything by this author

[Read by Danella] She dishes celebrity dirt no one else dares. But now, Maya Morgan is about to get a taste of her own medicine. Gossip show Rumor Central has gone beyond Miami to national syndication, so now's the time for Maya Morgan to really make her brand blow up. But things start to blow up in her face when a superfan takes over her online life, trashing her reputation and putting her gossip future at risk. Now Maya will need every down-and-dirty move -- and a little help from her frenemies -- to manage this disaster and save everything she's dished so hard to get.

From BooklistSeventeen-year-old Maya Morgan hosts Rumor Central, the hottest celebrity-gossip show on television. Thousands of fans love her exclusive scoops, but Mayas selfish, back-stabbing ways mean that she has her share of haters. When someone tries to sabotage her new career, Maya pulls every trick she can think of, no matter how dirty, to avoid losing her coveted spot. This fast-paced second installment of the Rumor Central series continues the high-volume drama. The formulaic plot will be of no consequence to readers caught up in the slang-laden whirlwind of insults and atrocious behavior from Miamis richest teen divas. Grades 8-10. --Summer HayesAbout the AuthorRESHONDA TATE BILLINGSLEY is the number one Essence bestselling author of numerous faith-based novels for adults, as well as the 'Good Girlz' Christian teen series.
